Newsletter: all newsletters and general communication is done via email. There is the facility for a newsletter to be posted at an additional cost of £20.00 to cover postage and printing. Please note that there may be a delay in you receiving information compared to email, and also you may miss out on more 'general' information and reminders that are sent out. This includes details of trips etc.

Hut duty volunteers: This is not a huge commitment with times being arranged to suit you. Please indicate how you are able to help. The hut cannot operate without the support of volunteers.
